

TRUTH-IN-SAVINGS DISCLOSURE

SHARE ACCOUNT

Rate Information:

The dividend rate and annual percentage yield may change every dividend period. We may change the dividend rate for your account as determined by the credit union board of directors.

Compounding and crediting - Dividends will be compounded every quarter. Dividends will be credited to your account every quarter.

Dividend period - For this account type, the dividend period is quarterly, for example, the beginning date of the first dividend period of the calendar year is January 1, and the ending date of such dividend period is March 31. All other dividend periods follow this same pattern of dates. The dividend declaration date follows the ending date of a dividend period, and for the example above is April 1.

Effect of closing account - If you close your Share account before dividends are paid, you will not receive the accrued dividends.

Minimum balance requirements:

The minimum required to open this account is $5.00. Please see the bylaw requirements in the Common Features section for additional information.

Daily balance computation method - Dividends are calculated by the daily balance method which applies a daily periodic rate to the balance in the account each day.

Accrual of dividends on noncash deposits - Dividends will begin to accrue on the business day you place noncash items (for example, checks) to your account.

Transaction limitations:

The maximum automated teller machine withdrawal we allow is $500.00 per day.

The minimum automated teller machine withdrawal we allow is $5.00 per withdrawal.

The above withdrawal limitation applies to this account in combination with Share Draft account(s).

During any statement period, you may not make more than six withdrawals or transfers to another credit union account of yours or to a third party by means of a preauthorized, automatic, or computer transfer or telephonic order or instruction or by check, draft, or similar order to a third party. If you exceed the transfer limitations set forth above in any statement period, your account will be subject to closure by the credit union.

Par value of a share:

The par value of a share in this account is $5.00.

The above withdrawal limitation applies to this account in combination with Share account(s).

Share drafts/checks are the same as cash. Lost or stolen share drafts should be reported to us immediately.

BOOSTCHECKING ACCOUNT

Rate Information:

The dividend rates and Annual Percentage Yield (APY) may change every dividend period. This is a tiered-rate account. The dividend rates are variable and we may change the dividend rates for your account as determined by the credit union board of directors. The dividend rate(s) and APY for a particular month is dependent on your average daily balance and whether or not you meet ALL of the qualifications in a particular qualifying cycle. See our rate sheet for the tiers applicable to this account. Your applicable dividend rate(s) and Annual Percentage Yield Earned (APYE) will be disclosed on your statement each month.

Compounding and crediting - Dividends will be compounded daily. Dividends will be credited to your account every month in which they are earned.

Dividend period - For this account type, the dividend period is monthly. For example, the beginning date of the first dividend period of the calendar year is January 1, and the ending date of such dividend period is January 31. All other dividend periods follow this same pattern of dates. The dividend declaration date is the last day of the dividend period and for the example above is January 31.

Effect of closing account - If you close your Boost Checking account or convert your existing share draft account to the Boost Checking account before dividends are paid, you will not receive the accrued dividends. In the month that your Boost Checking account is closed, the qualifying cycle will end on the date the account was closed.

Minimum balance requirements:

No minimum balance requirements apply to this account.

Average daily balance computation method - Dividends are calculated by the average daily balance method which applies a periodic rate to the average daily balance in the account for the period. The average daily balance is calculated by adding the balance in the account for each day of the period and dividing that figure by the number of days in the period. The period we use is the monthly statement cycle.

Accrual of dividends on noncash deposits - Dividends will begin to accrue on the business day you place non-cash items (for example, checks) into your account.

Transaction limitations:

The maximum automated teller machine withdrawal we allow is $500.00 per day.

The minimum automated teller machine withdrawal we allow is $5.00 per day.

These withdrawal limitations apply to this account in combination with the Share Account. Share draft/checks are the same as cash. Lost or stolen share drafts should be reported to us immediately. Only one checking account allowed per membership number.

Qualifications:

To qualify for the higher dividend rate (up to the balances listed in the rate sheet), you must meet ALL of these qualifications in the qualifying cycle:

- ◆ Have at least one direct deposit or multiple direct deposits totaling $900 or more to your membership in the qualifying cycle. (Remote Deposit Capture transactions do not qualify).
- ◆ Receive your monthly statement electronically.
- ◆ Have 25 debit card transactions post and clear in the qualifying cycle. Only debit card transactions processed by merchants and received by the credit union as POS, PIN POS, signature and PAVD qualify. ATM transactions are excluded.

Qualifying Cycle:

Qualifying cycle means a period beginning on the first day of the month and ending on the last day of the month. For example, for the month of November the qualifying cycle would begin on November 1 and end on November 30.

IRA CERTIFICATE OR COVERDELL EDUCATION CERTIFICATE

Rate Information - See attached Term Share Certificate Disclosure Statement for dividend rate, annual percentage yield, compounding frequency, crediting frequency, dividend period, minimum balance and time requirements.

Daily balance computation method - Dividends are calculated by the daily balance method which applies a daily periodic rate to the balance in the account each day.

Accrual of dividends on noncash deposits - Dividends will begin to accrue on the business day you place noncash items (for example, checks) to your account.

Transaction limitations:

After the account is opened, you may not make additions into the account until the maturity date stated on the account.

You may make withdrawals of principal, and/or dividends, from your account before maturity only if we agree at the time you request the withdrawal. Principal, and/or dividends, withdrawn before maturity is included in the amount subject to early withdrawal penalty unless you have attained the age of 59 1/2.

Early withdrawal penalties (a penalty may be imposed for withdrawals before maturity) -

- ◆ If your account has an original maturity of one year or less:
The penalty we may impose will equal 30 days dividends on the amount withdrawn subject to penalty.
- ◆ If your account has an original maturity of more than one year:
The penalty we may impose will equal 90 days dividends on the amount withdrawn subject to penalty.

In certain circumstances such as the death or incompetence of an owner of this account, the law permits, or in some cases requires, the waiver of the early withdrawal penalty. Other exceptions may also apply, for example, if this is part of an IRA or other tax-deferred savings plan.

Withdrawal of dividends prior to maturity - The annual percentage yield is based on an assumption that dividends will remain in the account until maturity. A withdrawal will reduce earnings.

Automatically renewable account - This account will automatically renew at maturity. You may prevent renewal if we receive written notice from you before maturity of your intention not to renew or you withdraw the funds in the account at maturity (or within the grace period mentioned below, if any). We can prevent renewal if we mail notice to you at least 30 calendar days before maturity. If either you or we prevent renewal, dividends will not accrue after final maturity.

Each renewal term will be the same as the original term, beginning on the maturity date. Dividends will be calculated on the same basis as during the original term.

You will have a grace period of ten calendar days after maturity to withdraw the funds without being charged an early withdrawal penalty.

IRA SHARE ACCOUNT OR COVERDELL EDUCATION SHARE ACCOUNT
